BUFFALO BILL DENIED DIVORCE

Court Finds in Favor Mrs. Cody.

Judge in His Favor Pays High Tribute to Woman.

Declares Charges of Unbecoming Actions on Her Part Are

SHERIDAN, Wyo., March 23.-The District court here today refused the petition of Cot William F. Cody ("Buffalo Bill") for a divorce. A decision in the case was not expected before tomorrow at the earliest, but the courtroom was filled with residents of Sheridan and the surrounding country where it was given out. After the reading of the depositions was finished today the attorneys for both sides announced that they would submit the case without argument. In Favor of Mrs. Cody.

After a short recess Judge R. H. Scott asked the attorneys for the defendant, Wilcox and Halligan of North Platte. Neb. to amend their answer in the case by striking out those sections which dealt with charges against Bessie Isbell, cody's conduct in Chicago and his early excesses at Fort McPherson. When this was done the court found entirely in favor of the defendant, Mrs. Louisa Cody. Judge Scott delivered an opinion of considerable length, reviewing the allegations and evidence and giving his conclusions. Conclusions of Court.

Conclusions of Court.

Conclusions of Court.

'The law of the State does not make incompatibility a ground for divorce, but it does read that extreme cruelty, rendering the condition of either party to the marriage contract intolerable, is sufficient ground to allow the granting of a divorce," said Judge Scott.

'The first cause of action in this case is the charge of poisoning on December 29, 1909, or some time prior thereto. The evidence wholly falls to support this issue, but shows the defendant was trying to rescue the plaintiff from a state of intoxication, and administered, not polson, but remedies which she decemed beneficial to him. His inability to speak on this occasion did not come from these remedies, but came from his excessive use of intoxicating liquors at the barquet board, and was as humiliating to the defendant as to the plaintiff.

'The unhappiness caused by the actions of the plailtiff is shown by the letter of their daughter. Arta Thorpe, whose beautiful character shone out from her unhappy home and the words of her letter written just before her death. 'Oh, papa, why did he do it?' My heart is broken over it. Oh why did he do it.

Charges Not Proven.

Charges Not Proven.

Judge Scott also found that the charge of unbecoming actions on the part of the defendant toward the Colonel's guests was not proven; that there was no evidence that she had even threatened her lusband's life and that when attending the funeral of her daughter Arta at Rochester. N. Y., in February, 1904, she offered a permanent reconciliation, and no answer ever came to this.

"She was an over-indulgent mother and wife, who always took pride in his success and always took pride in his receive him," said Judge Scott. "She entertained his guests with cordiality. She did not use profane language. The poisoning of his pet dogs was accidental. She never spoke disrespectfully of him to his friends or guests. She always accompanied him to the depot on his departures, and was there to receive him on his return.

Must Have Loved Him.

Must Have Loved Him.

"In her home she has a large statue of him in the hall; in her bedroom she has his portrait done by a famous painter; on her stand she has his photograph and the dishes she used were souvenir ones stamped or etched with his portrait Such, in brief is the character and conduct of Mrs. Cody, extending over a long period of her married life.

"In return for this wifely devotion the plaintiff has been cruel to her and heaped indignities upon her. Even if it were true that the defendant had at times been impatient with him, and such impatience has been considered as indignities, it is also true that she has had much to contend with. There are some allegations in the answer that are not sustained by the cyldence. From the evidence it does not appear that the plaintiff was addicted to gambling so as to impair his business abilities or trustworthiness. He did not use intoxicating liquors in such quantities as to interfere with the transaction of his business."

Exceptions Are Taken.

Exceptions Are Taken.

An exception to the ruling of the court was noted by Judge H. R. Ridgley, attorney for Col. Cody, and his request for sixty days for filing a petition for a rehearing was granted.

The motion for a new trial will be argued at the next term of court and in case this is denied, Cody's attorney will take the matter to the Supreme court of Wyoming.

Ataxia Four Years BAD WRECK IN

FOLLOWS MALARIA CONTRACT-ED IN SPANISH-AMERICAN

Victim Had Become Helpless When He Tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, but Wus Cured in Four Months.

Because he did not know that there is a remedy for locomotor ataxia, Mr. Ariel endured four years of weakness, Ariel endured four years of weakness, pain and the misery of thinking his case to be incurable. Any drugglet could have told him that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, after establishing a reputation for the quick and thorough cure of ordinary nervous disorders, had been used in cases of ataxla with results that were astonishing even to the makers of that great nerve remedy. The Dr. Williams Medicine Company investigated these cases carefully, found the facts beyond dispute, and the cures lasting. Then the victims of locomotor ataxla were told to despair no longer. In the hope that it may shorten the misery of others similarly afflicted, Mr. Ariel makes the following statement:

ing statement:
"At the outbreak of the Spanish American war I went with Company B. Eighth Regiment, M. V. M., into camp at Chickamauga, and while there my peared."

"How did the ataxia begin? "I first noticed a pain in my ankles and knee joints. This was followed by a numb feeling in my legs. I was at work in the Portsmouth. N. H., Navy Yard when the symptoms first appeared. At times I had to drag my-self around, my legs would state or self around; my legs would shake or become perfectly dead." Did you ordinarily have any diffi-culty in walking?"

"I had constant trouble in getting about in the dark. I kept a light burning in my room at night as I could not balance myself in the darkness. Even with the aid of a light I wobbled, and my movements were so unsteady that I would reach out and catch hold of chairs to prevent myself from falling."

"How long were you a sufferer?"
Four years in all. During the last three years I was confined to bed, sometimes for a week, again for three sometimes for a week, again for three or four weeks at a time. When I was lying down the pain in my back was frequently so severe that I had to be helped up and put in a chair to get a little relief. I had considerable pain in my bowels and no control over my kid-neys. The worst of all was that the doctor could give me no hope of recovery.

"How were you cured?"
"I read in a newspaper that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had cured locomotor ataxia and one or two friends spoke to me about them. In the fall of 1903 I began to take them for myself and I had not used more than one box before I found that the pains in my knees and ankles were greatly relieved. Four months afterward I became a perfectly well man, and I am today enjoying the best of health. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cured the locomotor ataxia and drove the malaria out of my system.

Mr. Edward H. Arlel lives at No. 43 Powow street, Amesbury, Mass. Every sufferer from locomotor ataxia should try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills without delay. There is no reason why they should not do for others all that they have done for Mr. Ariel. They also cure sciatica, neuralgia and partial paralysis. Any druggist can supply

I willingly make this liberal offer because Dr Shoop's Restorative is not an ordinary stomach remedy. It does not indeed, treat the stomach itself. It goes beyond—it treats the nerves that control and operate the stomach and cause stomach trouble. For stomach, the nerves that wear out and break down and cause stomach trouble. For stomach, trouble is really only a symptom that there is serious nerve trouble inside. That is why ordinary remedies full. That is why ordinary remedies full. That is why my remedy succeeds. That is why I can afford to make this ofter.

Yet do not maunderstand me when I say "nerves." I do not mean the nerves you ordinarily think about. I mean the automatic atomach nerves over which your mind has no control. I have not the space here to explain to you how the nerves control the stomach or how they may be vitalized and restored. When you write I will send you a book which will make these points clear. But this much is certain—alling nerves cause all forms of stomach trouble—indigestion, beiching, heartburn, insomnia, nervousness, dyspepsia. No stomach medicine will cure these allments. Only nerve treatment will do that. No other remedy than Dr. Shoop's Restorative even claims to reach these nerves.

What alls the atomach nerves? Worry, probably Mental anguish destroys their tiny flasts and tears down the telegraph lines without which the stomach has no more self control than a sponge. Overwork will do it. Dissipation will do it. But the effect is the same—stomach failure.

No matter how these nerves became impaired—I know a way to rebuild their strength—to restore their vigor. It is a remedy which took thirty years of my life to perfect—a remedy which to shome the sound and have never triad my remedy, mercy write and ask. Romantic Courtship Ends in Wedding

Salt Laker Wooes and Wins a Bride in Less Time Than a

LA PORTE, Ind., March 22.—The wooleg and wedding of a bride in less time than a week were the unusual and remantic incidents marking the marriage at Plymouth this svening of Louis Block of Salt Lake City Unh, and Miss Jennie Lauer, a pretty Jawess and the daughter of wealthy and prominent parents. The event was solemnised with a notice wedding and much ceremony.

Mr. Block arrived in Plymouth last Saturdary, meeting for the first time the young woman who was fated to become his bride. Mutual friends had caused an exchange of letters, but with little or no idea of promoting the matrimonial prospects of Mr. Block or Miss Lauer, though the correspondence had its interesting climax in a conditional engagement. The meeting of Mr. Block and Miss Lauer on the arrival of the former proved to be love at sight and by agreement with the latter this evening was appointed for the solemnizing of the ceremony. The couple will leave at once for Salt Lake City, where the groom is said to be prominently connected.

Louis F. Block, the young man in the case, came to Sait Lake about eighteen months ago from Denver. Since coming to this city he has engaged in the loan business, having an office in the Keith building. Mr. Block left for Indiana a few days ago, advising his friends here that he would return in a few days with his bride, a charming Indiana girl.

Under these circumstances, according to customs of the Mormon church, which prevailed at that time, the marriage relations between the two became dissolved, leaving Mr. Barney free to remarry. In the course of time Mr. Barney took unto himself another wife said during all these years the first wife has made no pretense of having any claim upon him or his estate. She had been married again to another man. No civil action, however, was ever taken in the matter.

Coming in now and making a demand upon the estate has given rise to compilications in having Mr. Barney's property disposed of and a legal contest to on. During the trial the customs of the Mormon church in relation to marriages at the time the first wife quit Mr. Barney's domicile will be given an airing.

AMUSEMENTS

An Englishman, the little play written and presented by Miss Jeanne Bussell Alford last night in the Nineteenth ward hall, was remarkable for the great promise it shows in Miss Alford as both actress and playwright. The support was good, but Miss Alford was undoubtedly the life and spirit of the play and only when she was on the stage was the scene complete. Although the action is slower in this farce than in her previous comedy. Traps, the play shows greater promise for depth of feeling, and allows Miss Alford, the opportunity to prove her gift at interpreting the deeper condons. There are many elever things in its lines. One is impressed with the fact that Miss Alford's ability le greater than any opportunity given her for showing it so far Her acting is natural and charming. The audience was a large one, and was greatly pleased. The farce will be presented again tonight, with "Traps" on Saturday night in the Jackson school building.

The seat sale for the English Grand Opera company opened at the Sait Lake Theater vesterday morning with a long line of buyers in front. The sale was steady all day. SCREWS APPLIED TO THE PRESS

Boycott to Begin on Ogden Journal.

Notice Served Upon the Paper by Church Leader.

Directed to Cease Making Favorable Comment Upon Stand Taken by Smurthwaite.

OGDEN, Utah, March 23.-The hierarch at Salt Lake has issued the order to his servile tools in this city that favorable utterance regarding the stand taken by Mr. Smurthwaite will result in quick revenge by the monarchy. Free speech law-deflers must be permitted to continue living their lives in open defiance of all law, and woe be the person who inter The latest is a threatened boycott against the Journal of this city. Here is what the Journal, in its issue of Tuesday said about the matter:

Testerday the manager of the State Jour-nal was informed by telephone that it must desist from its course of friendly expressions toward Charles A. Smurthwaite or suffer the consequences. The informant at the other and of the telephone is a prominent citism of a suburb of Ogden. He was asked to explain his warning, or threat, and stated that if The Journal does not cease at once to offer favor-able editorial comment upon the stand taken by Mr. Smurthwaite, Mormon subscribers and advertisers will discontinue their patronage.

Several Facts Forgotten

Several Facts Forgotten.

There are several facts which our suburban friend failed to take into account when he was pondering upon the advisability of attempting to intimidate The Journal into a submissive sycophancy by means of the bayeast bugabo. Just a few of them ones well he stated here. Ogden is the second largest city in a great State of the American Union. Ogden is a part of America. One of America procudest beaats is free speech. By print or word of mouth every American possesses the inalienable right to utter his thoughts. Old Glory, symbolizing the liberty whose gularantee is the Constitution, floats over overy great metropolis and every mean hamlet throughout the length and breadth of the Constitution, is the one unpardonable sin.

No Treason Uttered.

No Treason Uttered.

Has The Journal uttered treason? Has Charles Smurthwaite, either to his country or to his creed? Smurthwaite charges President Smith with having forhade him to engage in the salt business in competition with the church company. Is that treason to the faith? Has any apostle ever received a revelation forbidding legitimate competition? Our advisor at the other end of the sphone is a prominent member of the political party, one of whose slogans is "Down with the trusts" Death to monopolies!" Smith Violator of Law.

Smurthwaite cites President Smith a own testimony to prove that the head of the church is living in open colation of the faw of the land and the law of the church. Is that treason to either the land or the church? Our warning mentor is himself a polyagamist. Ilving with two wives in testance of statute and revelation, and it would be obviously unfair to ask him to answer that question.

Pertinent Questions.

President Smith swors in Washington and publicly stated in Ogden that he was not the recipient of rev-lation and Smirthwaito claims that he should rule either by revelation or by common consent, charging that he is loing neither. Is he! Is it treason to ask it. deling neither. Is he? Is it treason to ask it even though the president may assert that he swore falsely in Washington in order to deceive the incestigators? Was it treason for Smurthwaite to claim for himself the liberty of thought and speech and act which is couchasfed by the Constitution? Was it treason to show that pickes have been broken and to insist that Mormons obey the laws of the land as they had promised? Was it treason to question the right of church control in politics and commercialism or to ask for some accounting of tithes?

When Questions Are Answered. When each of those questions shall have been answered and when the answers shall have proved that Charles Smurthwaite has al-tacked the faith he has professed or has vi-lated even in spirit the laws of his land, then and not before that time, will The Journal believe that in showing friendship to him it incurs the emitty of Americans in this or any other State of the American Union.

One Servile Paper in Ogden.

One Servile Paper in Ogden.

Finally, The Journal admits that by a fawning obsequious, hypocritical, servile cringing to a few in brief all-vity a newspaper can gain a temporary doubtful tolerance and even the patronage, at the loss of its self-respect and even the respect of those whose favor it courts, of a certain class who obey their leaders, some sincerels and others from policy, even though the leaders belle by their lives their own official utterances and repudiate today what they said yesterday, living meanwhite in violation of the law of God and mait, but we have in Ogden already one paper of that order, controlled by a man who flies to the rescue of powerful church leaders in whose religion he does not believe, but through whose prominent station he hopes to reap reward from their subjects. One paper of that atripe in a city of Ogden's size is enough.
